Class History

In September, 1953, there were 19 members in our freshmen class: Kenneth Gottfried, Georgia Gatchell, Joyce Frank, Jerry Karg, Rose Ann Weaver, Earl Weaver, Dolores Shumaker, Russell Gottfried, Mollie Shearer, Roy Laudenslager, Genevieve Nachbar, Basil Moses, Mark Davidson, Marilyn Byrd, Elaine Gohl, Nancy Traxler, Sandra Morrison, Wilbie Rowe, and Robert Gatchell. Mrs. Greenwald was our class sponsor.

When we returned in September, 1954, there were only 18 members in our sophomore class. Mollie Shearer left us. Mr. Schoeppner was our class sponsor this year.

Our junior year found us with only 17 members. Elaine Gohl left us. Our class sponsor was Mr. Hamman.

At last, our senior year. There are 15 members in our class. Georgia Gatchell, Genevieve Nachbar, Sandra Morrison, Joyce Frank, Rose Ann Weaver, Nancy Traxler, Roy Laudenslager, Wilbie Rowe, Earl Weaver, Kenneth Gottfried, Robert Gotchell, Jerry Karg, Mark Davidson, Carl Tiell, and Basil Moses. Dolores Shumaker, Russell Gottfried, and Marilyn Byrd left us and Carl Tiell joined us. Mr. Hamman was again our class sponsor. Through all the 12 years in Salem, Joyce Frank, Sandra Morrison, Nancy Traxler, Wilbie Rowe, Rose Ann Weaver, Roy Laudenslager, Earl Weaver, Kenneth Gottfried, and Jerry Karg made the trip together. Best wishes to the "56" Seniors.

Class Prophecy

Log record of road tests of the new atomic automobile motor I invented.

May 1, 1971-I decided a visit to my classmates would be a good test for the motor so I left for Detroit to visit Wilbie Rowe.

May 2-Arrived in Detroit and went to the Ford plant where Wilbie crash tests the new models, he says that the job is a rollover. He invited me out to lunch where I met his wife, the former Rose Ann Weaver, and their six children.

May 3-Left for Wisconsin to visit Kenneth Gottfried. On the way I was arrested for speeding. I was going 120 in a 100 mile per hour speed zone. When I arrived Kenneth took me on a tour of his dairy farm. He's married now and he says that it has sure been a long pull getting here.

May 4-Arrived in Kansas and went to Mark Davidson's farm. He claims that he likes farming, but it's a corny business.

May 7-Got to Washington today and went to see Joyce Frank and her husband. They own a sizable chicken ranch even though Joyce hates them.

May 8-Arrived in California today and I visited Jerry Karg. He owns the west coast branch of the Karg Construction Company. Their motto is "We Work Every Other Day."

While in California I visited Nancy Traxler who is a teacher in a very large school. When I arrived she was practicing with her "bull" whip. I left shortly.

May 10-Went to Reno to visit Carl Tiell. Carl owns a place called Carl's Club. He says that things are really going around.

Robert Gatchell was in Reno right then, so I went to visit him. He had just gotten back from a World Evanglism Tour and I agreed with him that Reno was a good place to finish.

May 11-I'm in Texas now, so I stopped to see Sandra Morrison and her husband. They own a small (by Texas standards) cattle ranch (with a few oil wells as a side line) and are doing quite well.

May 13-While I was in New Orleans I met Basil Moses who is now a CPA, the one that checks on the other CPA's.

May 14-I went to Florida to visit Georgia Gatchell and her husband. They own a large fleet of fishing boats.

May 15-Arrived in Virginia and went to visit Earl Weaver. Earl owns a large string-bean plantation. Said that he needed company.

May 16-After a short drive to Washington D.C. to visit Genevieve Nachbar and her husband, who is now the Senator from Ohio, I started for home.

16 days: Miles traveled; 18,236: Test: a success.

Launcelot Beldinker . . . . . Roy Laudenslager
Peter G. Fillup . . . . . Jerry Karg
Signor . . . . . Robert Gatchell

Launcelot, a mild-mannered, hen-pecked little man in the midst of his campaign for Congress under the auspices of the Good Government, and his wife, Aspasia, who is writing without words or music, have three children. Aay is a health fanatic. Bee paints pictures--modern ones, of course--which no one can understand, including herself. And she's engaged to Dick Charles, one of the most promising students at the College of Embalming. And See--well, See can best be described as one of the most thorough-going little brats in recent dramatic literature. And we mustn't forget Grandma Dimity, who spends her life clipping coupons and entering radio contests. The Plot centers in the machinations of Jonathan Q. Pypuss, an energetic book agent who sells the Beldinkers on easy (!) payments a thirty-seven volume encyclopedia. These easy payments are the downfall of the Beldinkers, resulting finally in the loss of their furniture and dispossession from their home.

Whitcomb Pewberry . . . . . Wilbie Rowe

This is the story of the Eliot sisters: Jan, the favored pampered darling, and Nicki, the mouse. The Eliots have just moved to the small town of Riverville and Jan is in revolt. At Rosstown High she'd been chosen most attractive girl of the year, so enrolling in a school with a student body of three hundred was quite a let-down--that is, until she saw Jack Westmore. Nicki saw him, too, and ran into her little corner and began to daydream, as usual, about a fairy godmother who would change her into a glamour girl overnight--and one did, only she wasn't a fairy godmother. She was, of all things, a school teacher, a Miss Tilby, who had an amazing gift for cataloging people and putting them exactly where they belonged.

She gave Nicki a page out of her book entitled, "How To Get A Boy Friend." The only trouble was it worked too well. She got three of them and getting rid of them was something even Miss Tilby couldn't do.

JOKES

Mr. Wink: Do you know the difference between a boy and a girl?
Gaylon R: No, I don't.
Mr. Wink: You ought to have some interesting dates!

Sandra M: I want to buy some pins and needles.
Clerk: Doing some sewing?
Sandra: No, I'm a sword swallower on a diet.

Mr. Kolar: What is the difference between 'madame' and 'mademoiselle?'
Paul B.: Monsieur.

Mr. Shull: Is there any soup on the menu?
Waitress: There was, but I wiped it off.

Mrs. Crago: Did you shave this morning, dear?
Mr. Crago: Yes.
Mrs. Crago: Next time stand closer to the razor.

Teacher: Since pro means the opposite of con, can you give me an illustration of each?
Student: Progress and Congress.

Mr. Groth: "No, I was tolling. I thought you were dead."

Marjorie: Say, Rachel, how did you get that swelling on you nose?

Rachel: Oh, I bent down to smell a brose in my garden.

Marjorie: Not a BROSE, Rachel----ROSE. There's no "B" in rose.
